Memory Tips:

1. Occupations ending in -ero/-era often indicate someone who works with something specific:

- Frutera works with frutas (fruits)
- Jardinero works with jardín (garden)
- Camarero works in cámara/sala (room/dining room)

2. Medical professions often have similar words to English:

- Dentista = Dentist
- Cirujano = Surgeon
- Enfermero/a = Nurse

3. Some professions have gender variations:

- Masculine ends in -o (Médico)
- Feminine ends in -a (Médica)
- Some are gender-neutral (Dentista)

4. Related professions can be grouped:

- Medical field: Médico, Dentista, Enfermero, Cirujano

- Service industry: Camarero, Frutera, Vendedor, Comerciante

- Agricultural: Granjero, Agricultor, Jardinero, Campesino

1. Médica/Doctora = Doctor

Tip: Think of "medicina" which sounds like "medicine"

2. Granjero/Agricultor = Farmer

Tip: "Granjero" sounds like "grain" which farmers grow

3. Veterinario/a = Veterinarian

Tip: Very similar to English word "veterinary"

4. Bailarín/Bailarina = Dancer

Tip: Comes from "bailar" (to dance) - think "bailar = ballet"
