Here are the correct answers for each sentence based on the context and Spanish grammar rules:

1. ¿Qué hora ...?
   - Correct: es
   - Explanation: To ask or state the time, you always use the verb ser. The full sentence would be ¿Qué hora es? (What time is it?).

2. ... las 4:15 de la tarde.
   - Correct: son
   - Explanation: For specific times, you use son (plural form of ser) because time is plural, except for 1 o'clock (e.g., Es la una). The sentence would be Son las 4:15 de la tarde (It's 4:15 in the afternoon).

3. Ella ... estudiando para el examen de español.
   - Correct: está
   - Explanation: The progressive form (e.g., "is studying") requires the verb estar. The full sentence is Ella está estudiando para el examen de español. (She is studying for the Spanish exam.)

4. Este banco ... de madera.
   - Correct: es
   - Explanation: To describe the material something is made of, you use ser. The full sentence is Este banco es de madera. (This bench is made of wood.)

5. -¿... (tú) de acuerdo? -Sí, (yo) ... de acuerdo.
   - Correct: estás ... estoy
   - Explanation: To express agreement (being "in agreement"), you use estar because it refers to a state or condition. The full conversation is:
     - ¿Estás de acuerdo? (Are you in agreement?)
     - Sí, estoy de acuerdo. (Yes, I am in agreement.)

Final Answer List:
1. es
2. son
3. está
4. es
5. estás ... estoy

10 SER vs ESTAR 03 G2

Elige la forma correcta

¿Qué hora ...? *

○ está
◉ es
○ son

... las 4:15 de la tarde *

○ es
○ está
○ están
◉ son

Ella ... estudiando para el examen de español *

○ es
○ soy
◉ está

Este banco ... de madera *

○ soy
○ está
◉ es

-¿... (tú) de acuerdo? *
-Sí, (yo) ... de acuerdo

○ eres ... soy
◉ estás ... estoy
○ estás ... estás
○ están ... estás

Google Forms